Mes Souhaits.

Oh, would I were the lowly breeze
That steals about that tiny feet,
To cool and lead them on their way
To some moss-fringed retreat!

And would I were the soft June light
That laves thy brow and lips,
To cool and lead them on their way
To some moss-fringed retreat!

And would I be, thy heart to ease,
The ecstasy of song,
To cool and lead them on their way
To some moss-fringed retreat!

And would I were the angel that
Shall take from thee all stain
Of toil and care and wretchedness,
And Death's cup for thee drain!

And would I were the violet
That e'er thy dreamless sleep,
Shall in mute, fragrant faithfulness,
Their starlit vigil keep.

Matthews—Camp.

A very pretty marriage took place last evening at nine o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Carter Camp, No. 222 Grove Avenue, when their daughter, Miss Helen Elizabeth Camp, became the wife of the Rev. Carl Stanley Matthews, of Winnsboro, S. C. The Rev. F. T. McKend, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was the officiating clergyman.

Decorations were in palms, ferns and sweet peas. Miss Louise Camp, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the Rev. W. B. Stuart was best man. Misses Lillie Camp, of Alabama, and Gertrude Clarke, of Richmond, were the bridesmaids, and the groomsmen were the Rev. H. M. Moffett, of Horton, W. Va., and Dr. Phillips, of Rapidan, Va. The bride, who entered with her father, wore white crepe de chine with a border of rose point lace. Her tulle veil was fastened with a coronet of white sweet peas and her bouquet was a shower of the same blossoms.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids were dressed in pink point, draped over pink silk and carried pink sweet peas. At the close of the ceremony, there was a reception in the bride's home, after which Mr. and Mrs. Matthews left to spend their honeymoon in the South. Mr. Matthews is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Matthews, of South Carolina. He has charge of the Presbyterian Church at Rapidan, Va., where he and his bride will make their home.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Dr. Phillips, of Rapidan, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, of Orange, Va.; Mr. Stuart Breese, of Rapidan, Va.; Miss Young, of Alabama; Mrs. Fount of Staunton, Va.; Mrs. Eastwood, of Portsmouth, Va.; and the Rev. H. M. Moffett, of Horton, W. Va.

Porter—Rudd.

A wedding of much interest to the many Richmond friends of the bride and groom was that of Miss Frances Estelle Rudd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Rudd, of Belmont, Powhatan county, to Mr. Robert Gregory Porter, of the same county, which took place yesterday morning at ten o'clock. The Rev. I. B. Bagby, D. D., of Ballsville, Va., officiated, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Harrison, of Danville, Va., who was for many years the bride's pastor.

The assembly hall of Oak Grove Academy, where the ceremony was performed, was made beautiful with decorations of cream and white. The bride, Miss Estelle Bagby, of Ballsville, Va., was in the plane and played softly throughout the ceremony.

Miss Lena Amonette Rudd attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore in exquisite gown of embroidered Swiss lace, carried white lilies. The bridesmaids, who were Mrs. E. P. Dismukes, Jr., of Columbus, Ga.; Miss Arnette L. French, of Belton, Va.; Miss Grace Truman Howard, of Powhatan, Va.; Miss Annie Thayer, of Amelia county, Va.; Miss Berdie May Bough, of Belton, Va.; and Miss Elizabeth B. Howard, of Richmond, wore white linen Elton suits, with trimmings of Irish lace, together with white sailor hats. They carried white silk fans.

Mr. Thomas Jefferson Noble, of Richmond, acted as best man, and the following were the groomsmen: Dr. M. B. Tudd, of Richmond; Mr. J. Gregory Porter, Mr. Thomas Scott, of Cumberland, Va.; Mr. Kemper Rector, of Richmond; Mr. Thomas Whitte, of Richmond, and Mr. Haskins Hobson, of Belton, Va. Mr. David Scott, of Arand, Florida, was master of ceremonies.

Two little flower girls, Misses Mildred and Bolling Dismukes, scattered blossoms in the bride's path as she advanced to the altar.

The bride entered with her father. Her costume was a going-away gown of steel gray, and her flowers were sweet peas. On the eve of the wedding an informal reception was given the bride party in the home of the bride's parents, where a beautiful display of wedding presents was made. After a wedding tour to the mountains of Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Porter will make their home in Powhatan county.

Miss Rudd has been for several years recording secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union of Virginia, and for some time secretary of the Young Women's Christian Temperance Union of the State.

TU DESINE TIMERE

By DR. WILLIAM EVERETT.

William Everett was born at Watertown, Mass., October 10, 1836. He lives at Quincy. He is the son of Edward Everett, who was a graduate of Harvard, and is master of the Adams Academy, Quincy. He has published essays, plays, sermons, poems and juvenile books. The Latin title of the following poem signifies "Fear not." "Lay aside your fear," or, literally, "Do the thing you are afraid of." The verses were first published in the Harvard Advocate, March 21, 1873.

FROM beyond the tears and the darkness,
From over the wild, sad sea,
Let the cheer of thy brothers' battle
Ring back, gallant soul, to thee!

Still on through the midnight of passion,
Let the star of thy young faith guide;
For we count the hours till we see thee
In manhood's ranks at our side.

Our ears are set for the ringing
That heralds thy dew-gemmed feet:
Come, brother! our mail weighs heavy;
Our nerves wax faint in the heat.

Strive on! for the goal looms nearer
To us in the strife ahead;
Live on! for our armies are thinning—
Our brave and our lovely are dead.

Then, when ocean and night wall dreary,
Let the breath of the coming years
Show a flash of the red-cross banner—
Wait the call of thy brothers' cheers!

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 11, 1903. One is published each day.

BUILDING FOOD

To Bring the Babies Around.

When a little human machine (or a large one) goes wrong, nothing is so important as the selection of food, to bring it around again.

"A little baby boy fifteen months old had pneumonia, then came brain fever, and no sooner had he got over that, than he began to cut teeth, and, being so weak, he was frequently thrown into convulsions," says a Colorado mother. "I decided a change might help, so took him to Kansas City for a visit. When we got there he was so very weak when he would cry he would sink away and seemed like he would die."

"When I reached my sister's home she said immediately that we must feed him Grape-Nuts, and, although I had never used the food, we got some, and for a few days gave him just the juice of Grape-Nuts and milk. He got stronger so quickly we were soon feeding him the Grape-Nuts itself, and in a wonderful short time he was fattened right up and became strong and well."

"That showed me something worth knowing, and when later on my girl came, I raised her on Grape-Nuts, and she is a strong, healthy baby and has been. You will see from the little photograph I send you what a strong, chubby youngster the boy is now; but he didn't look anything like that before we found this nourishing food. Grape-Nuts nourished him back to strength when he was so weak he couldn't keep any other food on his stomach." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

All children can be built to a more sturdy and healthy condition upon Grape-Nuts and cream. The food contains the elements nature demands, from which to make the soft gray filling in the nerve center and brain. A well fed brain and strong, sturdy nerves absolutely insure a healthy body.

VARIETY AT THE CASINO.

Next Week's Attractions Will be Numerous and Varied.

Ed. F. Reynard, a ventriloquist of no mean ability, will be the headliner at the Casino next week. Mr. Reynard and his famous mechanical figures furnish a delightful variety of entertainment.

In conjunction with this feature act the management have booked another new European act, Miss Kitty Tranev and her trained pony and dogs. This is said to be one of the highest-priced revellous on the vaudeville stage to-day, and is of great interest to all theatre-goers, and a great treat for the children. Barry and Halvers, late principals of the Babes of Toyland and Wizard of Oz companies, have a neat little sketch. Barry is an eccentric comedian, whose foot work is rapidly bringing him to the front, and who will undoubtedly attain great prominence as a singing and dancing comedian.

Griff Brothers, French gymnasts, do some surprising work in their line. Phil Sings, the man who plays his own accompaniments on the piano, and sings his own songs. Mr. Sings is one of the merriest of men in his line, and has an infectious manner that makes him a world of friends. Emma Benne, a heartless whose wonderful voice has attracted much attention, has a prepossessing presence and is altogether an added attraction to this big show. The cameragraph, with new motion pictures, some instructive, others amusing, will close this great bill. Matinee and evening at 8 o'clock. Reserved seats at Branch Allen and McCoy's drug store.

A Surprise Party.
